quality is timeless...

Excellence

Real Dream Music is a unique and multi-faceted company which produces distinctive, timeless original music. From the initial inspiration to the final mix, Real Dream reaches for and attains a standard of excellence and consistently delivers a quality blend of art and commerce.

Originality

Our original music publishing catalog of over 100 songs encompasses styles as diverse as rock, pop, folk, jazz, country, alternative and instrumental. Our songs have appeared on national radio, films, television, corporate video and major commercial spots. Our much-acclaimed production company has produced fifteen commercial releases with sales of 350,000 units. The in-house label currently has eight releases in the catalog and is always working on something new.

Experience

CEO/president Pete Elman has been involved in all aspects of the music business — as a performing artist, studio player, songwriter, producer and label manager. He has developed a solid reputation as an accomplished musician whose creative energies continue to regenerate themselves, and whose experience, leadership and organizational skills can shepherd a project smoothly from start to finish.

Diversity

Real Dream Music can provide services for many situations:

.....

- For a film, television, commercial or video music supervisor who is looking for outstanding source, cue or theme music to license for their special project.

.....

- For artists who are looking for original material for their project.

.....

- For an artist who needs an experienced producer who will work one-on-one to help develop that artist's unique vision and together make the most exciting, honest-sounding and accessible product possible.

.....

- For its own roster of artists, to promote their product worldwide.

Principles

The music business continues to evolve, but one thing remains the same. A good song will always be good, and a great record is forever. At Real Dream Music we are guided by that principle.
